SEASIDE NATIONAL BANK & TRUST OPENS WINDERMERE OFFICE

ORLANDO, June 18, 2007 – Seaside National Bank & Trust today announces the opening of its Windermere office located at 4705 South Apopka-Vineland Road, Suite 120 in Orlando. The Windermere office is the third banking location for Seaside. Its other offices are located at 201 S. Orange Ave. in downtown Orlando and in the Promenade at the Florida Mall. A fourth Central Florida location is currently being constructed at 707 Platinum Point, Suite 1021, Lake Mary. The Lake Mary office is scheduled to open in September of 2007. The Windermere office opening marks the continuation of the Central Florida growth strategy planned by Gideon Haymaker, president and CEO for Seaside.

Seaside's growth strategy includes opening 15 offices across the state in the next three years in Central Florida, the Tampa Bay area, Fort Myers, Sarasota and the Treasure Coast. The bank plans to have over $1 billion in assets within five years. Seaside's focus is to serve high net worth individuals and middle market commercial clients by providing a broad and sophisticated product set, delivered by experienced client advisors in a personal, high touch service delivery model.

Doug Krenzer, a 28 year banking veteran, serves as market manager for the location. Krenzer is a Central Florida native and began his banking career with SunTrust Bank in Orlando. He has worked in nearly all areas of banking including commercial and real estate lending, retail branch administration, private banking, investments, bank operations, marketing and loan administration.

The Windermere office is a full-service financial center offering a complete array of personal banking, commercial banking and wealth management solutions to its clients.

The Windermere Banking Center hours of operation are as follows:

Lobby: 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. Monday – Friday.
